

Chantelle Wong, Consultant, Authentic Business Group CIC

I desire to use my experience and knowledge to bring transformation, deliver positive outcomes and unleash the potential in individuals and corporates. As a business strategist, executive coach and entrepreneur, I possess deep insights into business challenges and change management. I am an advocate of mindfulness, a positive mindset, and wholeness as essential tools for living in today's challenging and fast-paced environment.

My Life Purpose and Values

- My life purpose and mission is 'Imparting Wholeness', which summarises my passion of helping people to live a wholesome life.
- My top seven VIA Character Strengths are:
Spirituality, Gratitude, Honesty, Creativity, Curiosity, Perseverance, and Forgiveness

Experience

- I have over 20 years of global experience in the business and corporate environment, working with entities of all sizes. My job functions include equity investment, corporate finance advisory, business strategy, project management, and post-integration implementation.
- I am also professionally responsible for a portfolio of social entrepreneurship, charitable organisations, and executive coaching.
- I hold an MBA from the Cranfield School of Management and am a qualified Chartered Finance Analyst (CFA Institute, USA).
- I am an Accredited Executive Coach from the Academy of Executive Coaching.

Beyond AB

- I am enthusiastic about pursuing and sharing a holistic lifestyle encompassing body, soul and spirit. I am a qualified Pilates teacher, fitness trainer, and nutritional advisor.
- I have also competed in many full marathons and triathlons internationally, and raised money for charity.
- Food is another passion of mine. I am an amateur personal chef (trained at Leiths) and enjoy organizing large scale dinner events for friends and family. I particularly enjoy gastronomy holidays.
- Languages: Mandarin (Native), English (Native), Bahasa Malaysia (Professional Working Proficiency)

My perspective is developed from my diverse background, curiosity and desire for self-development.

My combination of business experience, passion to nurture people and my personal journey gives me great perceptiveness in bringing lasting transformation.

Clients value my openness, coupled with my passion and commitment to bringing a positive influence in all that I do.
