

Chris Page, Consultant, Authentic Business Group CIC

It is always a joy to see people learn more about themselves and those they work with, and be surprised by it! This realisation results in people discovering how they can work better together and is my driving passion. As a Consultant with Authentic Business I primarily work with organisations that have a social purpose because I love helping people who love to help others.

My Life Purpose and Values

- My life purpose is Cultivating Life – I love empowering people to find what brings them alive!
- My top seven VIA Character Strengths are: Judgment, Spirituality, Perseverance, Forgiveness, Curiosity, Fairness and Honesty.

Experience

- As a start-up entrepreneur I thrive on getting things going, and have started up a number of businesses over the past 20 years both overseas and in the UK, in a variety of sectors
- As a trained business coach since 2019 I have worked with entrepreneurs on every continent, in many different types of businesses.
- In 2020 I joined the Authentic Business Group which is a social enterprise working with businesses and non-profits to raise consciousness, increase employee engagement and to create meaning and purpose at work.
- I hold a Bachelors degree in Physiology from Bristol University.

Beyond AB

- I am happily married to Rosie and we have one child and one dog! We live in Cambridge.
- I enjoy playing underwater hockey (YouTube it!), five-a-side football and going on country walks.
- Languages: English (native), Kinyarwanda (conversationally).

I am an entrepreneur, strategic thinker and care deeply for others.

Clients value my insight, brevity and coaching skills that bring out their best.
