

Deepak Mahtani, Director, Authentic Business Group CIC

I have been described as a strategic thinker with a practical bent. I started my first successful business in Geneva, Switzerland when I was 22 years old. After selling the business, I joined a Global Multinational which had 6,500 employees and operations in 25 countries, as a Commercial Manager. Journeying Vision into Action in individuals, teams, communities, and nations is what I excel at. Helping others realise their potential and dreams is my life passion.

My Life Purpose and Values

- My life purpose is 'Releasing Dreams' which describes what I have been doing and gives greater focus to what I do now.
- My top seven VIA Character Strengths are:
Judgement, Perspective, Zest, Leadership, Honesty, Perseverance and Spirituality

Experience

- Born as the youngest of 5 children, I am an Indian who was born in Hong Kong, lived 14 years in Japan, 14 years in Switzerland and now resides in the UK
- I am an award-winning Management Consultant in the areas of Globalisation, Cross Cultural Management, and International Negotiations
- I have 2 university degrees in Business Management from Switzerland and Japan
- I currently have a portfolio lifestyle as a Social Entrepreneur, Mentor, Philanthropist, Charity Trustee and Company Board Member
- I am an international speaker on a number of Speaking Networks

Beyond Authentic Business

- I have been married to Celia for over 30 years, have 2 adult sons who are both married and living active lives. I enjoy travelling, new situations and disruption. I am a Trustee and Board member of a number of companies and charities. We have been living in Surrey for over 20 years.
- Languages: English (native); Japanese, French, Spanish & 2 Indian Languages.

Having lived and worked internationally, I have a global perspective that spans both the commercial and charitable world. Believing in the possibility of a better way, I am willing to challenge and disrupt ways of working and thinking to create a better tomorrow.

Clients value the insights and practical wisdom I offer. I continue to journey with them until they achieve their goals.
